(A crossroads. Jo and Mya, asked by a passer-by, point in two opposite directions.)

JO

Straight ahead. You go straight, second lights, turn left.

MYA

No. Just no. Left is one-way, he'll be going round in circles his whole life.

JO

It's not one-way, it's one-way EXCEPT residents.

MYA

He's not a resident. Look at him. He's got a wheelie suitcase and a hopeful look.

JO

Fine. Then he goes round by the square.

MYA

The square's been dug up since March.

JO

...Since March? Nobody tells me anything.

MYA

Sir, simplest thing: get back on the metro. You're almost there, actually. You shouldn't have come up.
