

The Queue

Romantic comedy · Two-hander · 2 min · Female role · Young adult · Beginner

(A queue on the pavement, late at night. Two people, one behind the other.)

ELLE

What are you queuing for, then? Nobody knows anymore. We're all just following the person in front.

LUI

No idea. I saw a queue, I thought: there must be a reason. A good queue never lies.

ELLE

So we might be waiting for... nothing.

LUI

Or the best thing of our lives. That's the beauty of queues: the suspense is free.

(The queue moves one step. They move, in sync.)

ELLE

If there's nothing at the end, I'll hold it against you for life.

LUI

Then let's hope there's something at the end. Otherwise we'll have spent an hour together for nothing.

ELLE

"For nothing." We'll see about that.
